SERMON NOTES

INTRODUCTION

God was PRESENT yesterday and He will be PRESENT tomorrow, but more importantly He is PRESENT TODAY in whatever circumstance we might be.

I. THE EVER PRESENT GOD IN COSMIC TROUBLES (vv.1-3)

“Strength” meaning our source of power for living.

“Refuge” where one finds rest and asylum.

“Fortress” signifies protection in Him.

Israel's confession of the ever-present God is a comforting doctrine. It means that He will also be there for us tomorrow in a MIGHTY WAY no matter what happens.

II. THE EVER PRESENT GOD IN JUDGMENT (vv.4-7)

Nations and kingdoms may cause great alarm and create havoc on earth (v. 6), but they will fall quickly when God speaks His word of judgment.

III. THE EVER PRESENT GOD IN ALL NATIONS ON EARTH (vv.8-11)

The psalmist exhorts the godly to consider the works of God. The recitation of the mighty acts of God plants reminds us of His care, protection and faithfulness toward His people.

The message is clear. BE STILL and KNOW that He is God: our ever-present HELP.

OUR MISSION

We are a church that seeks to bring glory to God, to build the local church through discipleship and to fulfill the Great Commission.
